Terms of a Restricted Appearance Certificate

A Restricted Appearance Certificate is issued pursuant to the Legal Profession Act.

It is issued to the named holder, who may, for the time period referenced and in relation to the subject matter for which it has been requested for, engage in the practice of law in Nunavut.

A RAC may be amended, by submitting a request in writing to the administrator of the Law Society of Nunavut, to permit the addition of up to 2 assignments to the subject matter shown overleaf.

Unless the RAC has been amended, the holder is not authorised to engage in the practice of law other than as described in the RAC. Unauthorized practice of law is an offense pursuant to section 68 of the Legal Profession Act of Nunavut.

If you have questions regarding the terms and conditions of a RAC please contact the law society of Nunavut at 867-979- 2330 or by email at administrator@lawsociety.nu.ca
