Reconciliation Lawyering - An Introduction to the Truth and Reconciliation 94 Calls to Action with Law Professor Rebecca Johnson, University of Victoria.

Recognized PD Hours: 1.5 Hours

What : This session will provide an introduction to and overview of the 94 recommendations of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission – the “Calls to Action”.

These recommendations offer a number of concrete and manageable avenues towards both redress and reconciliation. Significantly, the calls speak to the need for collaborative processes and decision-making. In this session we will draw on just such processes while providing an overview of the 94 calls. This overview will help lawyers position themselves to see the ways the TRC recommendations will be implicated in future work not only on the litigation front, but in legislative drafting, policy design, fundraising, and cultural production. This session will be of interest to lawyers working with municipal, territorial and federal governments, as well as with Aboriginal organizations, Health, Justice, and Education. It will also be of interest to lawyers advising religious communities, cultural communities, sporting associations, and the corporate sector.
