

CALL TO MEMBERS

The Law Society of Nunavut is looking to create a roster of members who would be available to act as counsel for various needs.

Such needs may include providing legal advice on specific matters or files, representing the Law Society during disciplinary or other proceedings, conducting investigations and other general guidance as needed.

The Law Society invites members who are interested to please provide a letter of interest, a proposed hourly rate and indication if you would consider doing pro-bono work.

Deadline to submit is Monday February 1, 2016. Please send your documentation to Erica Marcassa: support@lawsociety.nu.ca.
