

The Law Society of Nunavut Executive Members are pleased to announce the 2012 Recipient of the Neil Sharkey Volunteer Award

Ms. SUSANNE BOUCHER

For all the dedication and long term service and contribution to the Law society of Nunavut, the service of its members, and the betterment of the legal profession in Nunavut.

Ms. Boucher has been providing legal services to Nunavummiut since 2002 . As the President of the Law Society of Nunavut since 2008 and an Executive Member of the Society since 2007, devoted and volunteered countless hours of her time to improving the governance of the Society, to representing Nunavut at the Federation of Law Societies of Canada and the Canadian Lawyers Insurance Association, and to serving the legal profession in Nunavut.

Arthur Yuan, 2012 Law Society of Nunavut President

Working for the Law Society of Nunavut means working toward achieving the highest standards of our profession so that we meet our obligations, not only under the law or the Rules of Conduct, but also to the people of Nunavut. It is not always the most glamorous work, nor does it usually involve recognition. This award gives us that opportunity for recognition.

Susanne's work with the Law Society in Nunavut epitomizes the dedication and commitment to the public interest and the legal profession in Nunavut that the Award is meant to recognize.

Jeanette Gevikoglu, member of the Law Society of Nunavut and past Executive member.
