

A few examples of how a lawyer may be able to benefit you are as follows;

- Appearing as counsel of advocate
- Drawing, revising or settling any; petition, memorandum, association, articles of association, application, settlement, affidavit, minute, resolution, by-law or other document relating to the incorporation, registration, organization, dissolution or winding-up of a corporate body.
- Any pleading for use in any judicial proceeding
- Any will, deed of settlement, trust deed, power of attorney or document relating to any probate letters of administration or the estate of a deceased person/
- Any document relating to proceedings under an Act of Nunavut or an Act of Canada
- Any instrument relating to property that is intended, permitted or required to be registered, recorded or filed in any registry or other public office.
- Drawing any act or deed or negotiating in any way for the settlement of, or settling, any claim or demand for damages founded in tort,
- Agreeing to place at the disposal of any other person the services of a barrister and solicitor, and
- Giving legal advice.