

The Law Society has a duty to protect the public interest and requires the lawyers in our territory to practice law ethically and competently.

A person with questions or concerns about a lawyer's professional conduct can make complaint to the Law Society directly. You can contact the Law Society directly at 867-979-2330 or toll free at 844-979-2330.

There is a complaint form which is available on our webpage which you can also complete.

The Law Society is available to assist you with filling out the form or to answer any questions you may have.

To download a copy of the complaint form, please click on the link provided below.
