

The Law Society of Nunavut Executive Members are pleased to announce the 2013 Recipient of the Neil Sharkey Volunteer Award
Ms. SANDRA OMIK

Ms. Sandra Omik is awarded the Neil Sharkey Volunteer Award for her long-standing dedication to the Nunavut Law Foundation. Ms. Omik served two terms, including an extended term to facilitate a smooth transition until a new Director was appointed, demonstrating her strong commitment and active role in the Foundation.

Ms. Omik was instrumental in initiating as well as undertaking extensive research to create terms of reference for the Foundation's grant and award policies, which are the basis of the Foundation's mandate. All the hard work Ms. Omik undertook will soon materialize as the Foundation's new revised terms will be available over the summer. Moreover, Ms. Omik has been the voice of reason and fairness in all of the decision making process.

Overall, Ms. Omik's long-term support and guidance has brought the Foundation to a better place. Her presence on the Foundation's Board will be missed not only on a professional level but on a personal level as well.

On behalf of the Law Society Executive and its members, we are honored to have Ms. Omik as a member of the Nunavut Bar. We are pleased to award her with the Neil Sharkey 2013 Volunteer Award for her long-term service and invaluable contributions to the Nunavut Law Foundation.
