

According to s. 14(3) of the Legal Profession Act, both the Roll and the Record are open for inspection by any person on reasonable notice.

Pursuant S. 34 of the Rules of the Law Society of Nunavut, the following information in the Roll report can be inspected.

- a) Full name, date of birth, date of admission to the Society, address and number of the Roll assigned to the member;
- b) Date and particulars of the member's removal from the Roll, if any; and
- c) Date and particulars of the member's reinstatement to the roll, if any.

According to s. 35 of the Rules, the following information in the Record may be inspected.

- a) Full name, date of birth, address and number on the Roll assigned to the member;
- b) Date on which the member's application for membership was approved by the Executive;
- c) Details of membership in any other law society or comparable body;
- d) Election of the member as a member of the Executive;
- e) Dates of any findings of guilt for conduct deserving of discipline and any sanctions imposed;
- f) Date and particulars of the member's removal from the Roll, if any;
- g) Date and particulars of the member's reinstatement to the Roll, if any; and
- h) Such further particulars as the Executive may direct.